Anyone dreaming of a home with a large plot, opportunities for keeping animals, and a peaceful environment will find exactly that here.

Located in a quiet side street, this lovingly renovated country house combines rural charm, comfortable living, and versatile possibilities in a unique way. The impressive 6,229 m² plot provides ample space for animals, gardening, self-sufficiency projects, or simply a more relaxed lifestyle.

The single-storey house was built using traditional adobe construction and has been tastefully renovated in recent years. The modernization preserved the original character of the property while introducing modern comfort and practicality. The approximately 102 m² of living space includes a spacious living room with a fireplace, a bedroom, a guest room, a kitchen, a bathroom with shower and WC, a generous hallway, and practical storage areas.

The bright and welcoming rooms create an inviting atmosphere, making the house ready to move into immediately. The fireplace adds warmth and charm during cooler months, while the gas central heating system, insulated double-glazed windows, and the well-maintained condition ...
